

Sen. Wyden to Deliver Opening Remarks at Upcoming Sec. 230 Virtual Summit

Not Just for Websites: Section 230 and the App Economy* to focus on Promoting Innovation, Consumer Choice, and Access in a Mobile World

WASHINGTON, DC – July 16, 2020 – The App Coalition, the first organization solely focused on developing regulatory policies and legislation to ensure unfettered consumer access to apps and digital content, is pleased to announce that Senator Ron Wyden (D-OR) will deliver opening remarks at our virtual summit, Not Just for Websites: Section 230 and the App Economy, on July 22. Senator Wyden, one of the original authors of Section 230, will offer remarks leading into a panel discussion with other subject matter experts on the role of Section 230 in promoting a robust app and internet economy.

For more about the App Coalition, visit www.appcoalition.org, follow @app_coalition, or email info@appcoalition.org. Press inquiries should be sent to press@appcoalition.org.

###